By this report, the committee seeks to terminate its federal committee status. At this time, the committee will no longer be accepting contributions to affect federal elections or making expenditures in connection with federal elections. The committee has no remaining Levin funds, has no debt, and has an ending cash balance of $2,055.27, which it will use in nonfederal elections or for activities not requiring federal committee status. Please let us know if any further information or action is required.
